Building On The Past: The Beth Sholom High Holy Day Experience

As our new spiritual leader, Rabbi Murray Singerman has assumed the pulpit of Beth Sholom Congregation. With the assistance of the Religious Affairs Committee, he has formulated a plan for High Holy Day services which will build on our traditional customs. Our goal is to experience these days of beauty in a meaningful, spiritual manner.

- * We will use the Silverman Machzor, which will be available in the foyer as you enter the building.
- * Led by Morrie Kelsey, the Musaf (Additional) service will be sung to customary Beth Sholom melodies. Rabbi Singerman will lead the Shacharit (Morning) services with a mixture of traditional and Chassidic melodies.
- * We will follow the universal custom of congregants reciting prayers along with the Chazan.
- * The Torah will be read with the traditional High Holy Day cantillation.
- * Women will be called to the Torah for Aliyot and given other honors.
- * We will try to include as many congregants as possible when distributing honors. If you would like a non-aliyah honor, such as opening the ark, please let the Religious Affairs Committee know by leaving a message with Pauline or Janet. ☆

Thank you all for making me look good. So many of you have stepped up to the plate and pitched in; you are all amazing.

We have achieved so much this year thanks to your supporting our Italian dinner, Diamond Show, and Kitchen Shower, or simply by paying your dues or making an extra donation. You have enabled us to do the following:

1. Purchase new carpet for the Weinberg Chapel
2. Restock the kitchen
3. Donate $4,000 to the Synagogue
4. Order $500 worth of leaves for our new Tree of Life. (The Synagogue receives all profits from the sale of these leaves.)

PLEASE DO NOT REST LONGER THAN THE SUMMER, for we have more work to do.

Save the date – Sunday, October 3, 2010 – for the Sisterhood, NCJW and Hadassah joint membership brunch. More information will follow.

Once again, I can't thank each of you enough—but especially my board and committee chairwomen. ☆

Beth Sholom Program Committee

by Elissa Gross, Chair

What we did over our summer vacations...

Great ideas are flowing from the brains of your Beth Sholom Program Committee! Despite the recent departure of Marti Zweig due to family obligations (thanks for your hard work), former chair Norma Kelsey has still been actively involved in helping us plan future programs. Plans include guest speaker Claire Simmons, who addressed our congregation about the content of a Jewish backpack in the diaspora last year; Marshall Botkin, who will give a talk on the Jewish relics of Eastern Europe and the importance of preserving them; and Andy Rosenfeld, who hopes to bring his Mount St. Mary's Choir here for a program of Jewish music.

Betsy Nicholas worked on getting our two book-related programs. On Aug. 29, authors Ronald and Allis Radosh will speak on their new book, A Safe Haven: Harry S. Truman and the Founding of Israel, about Truman's involvement in the formation of the State of Israel. Paperback copies of the book are available in the Beth Sholom office for $12.

Also, a Nov. 14 program is planned with Michael Goldfarb, former BBC commentator, on his book coming out in paperback, Emancipation, which will also be available for purchase and reading beforehand, with our Beth Sholom Book Club and/or on your own. If you are interested in being included in the group purchase arrangements for either book, please contact Pauline soon!

Ilene Liszka routinely works on promoting programs to our membership through the Web site, as well as disseminating press information about those programs of interest to the general Frederick community and those not affiliated with us at this time. And Chris Eissenstat is always ready to help with refreshments and food arrangements for our many activities. Susan Dwyer is integral to ensuring the coordination and involvement of our youth, as well as planning events to attract and involve new and prospective members. Pauline Horn is at the helm to help coordinate dates, times and places, and offer staff support.

All this means that my job as Chair is relatively easy; but we can STILL use YOUR help with ideas, volunteering, outreach, etc. And, above all, PLEASE support our efforts by ATTENDING these interesting and diverse programs with your families and friends! ☆

Please join us with your friends and family on Friday, August 27, 2010
at 6:30 p.m.
for a Shabbat service and community dinner.

A FAITH IN THE FUTURE A BELIEF IN ACTION

by Marcy Taylor, President

Thank you to all who responded to our internet survey. The responses were helpful and the Board will be considering them closely as we plan our activities for the next year. The following summarizes some of the responses:

Meetings: About 30% of those that responded indicated that our meetings are not held at a convenient time and the majority suggested a preference for meeting one evening during the week. Starting in September, NCJW Frederick Section will be meeting the first Tuesday of every month at 7 p.m.

Programs: Respondents provided good feedback regarding the types of programs they would like to see offered. Community Service programs ranked high on the list as well as coed programs that are centered around Jewish life or are entertaining (but don't require active audience participation).

Collections: Although responses indicate that the collections we did this past year for COIP, the Cold Weather Shelter, Kline Hospice House and Adopt a Family should be repeated, we also received some recommendations for other collections to consider. As a result, we will be collecting for the Frederick Animal Control Division and Shelter in September and early October. Please keep an eye out for details.

Activities: When asked about our specific activities, most respondents indicated that they did not participate in the activities but that they thought we should repeat them again this year. The Board will look at this area closely to see what we can do to encourage greater participation.

Communications: It appears that we provide the right level of communication. However, it is disappointing that most respondents indicated that they have never checked out the NCJW Frederick Section Web site. We do try to keep this site current so please take the time to check it out periodically [www.ncjwfrederick.org]. And no, you won't be seeing us on Facebook any time soon.

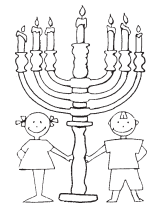

Demographics: The Board will be focusing on how to attract younger members. If you have ideas, please let us know!

The Board will be meeting in August to start planning what we hope will be another successful year for NCJW. We will share our ideas and plans with you at our first meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 7 at Beth Sholom. Until then, please enjoy the rest of your summer.
