Beth Sholom Religious School

Pauline Horn, Director

Half of this school year is behind us, and teachers and students have adjusted beautifully to our new Chai Curriculum, which emphasizes the most important concepts and values of Jewish life. We are looking forward to next year. If you have a child or grandchild who will be enrolling in the Religious School for the 2011-2012 year, please complete the Registration Form on the following page as soon as possible. This will help us in determining our staffing needs for next year. A fee schedule will be forthcoming. Thank you. ☆

A FAITH IN THE FUTURE A BELIEF IN ACTION

by Marcy Taylor, President

I hope everyone is staying warm and safe through these cold winter days. Although we have cancelled our February general meeting, our section is working hard planning some great events and programs.

Please join us for a special treat as we welcome Julie Gaver, author of Must Love Shoes. Julie will share her lessons about the tie that binds women together in friendship and laughter while we enjoy some chocolate treats. There is no charge for this program (but donations are very much appreciated).

- When: Thursday, Feb. 24
- Time: 7 p.m.
- Where: Beth Sholom Community Center

Thank you for supporting our current collections to help the Cold Weather Shelter. At the time of writing this article, we already delivered a load of much needed supplies to the Shelter. It is not too late to support this cause. We are continuing to collect the following items through February:

- Men's Winter Gloves (L, XL)
- White Crew Socks (L Men and Women)
- Hats (No Scarves Please)
- Men's T-Shirts (L, XL, XXL)
- Men's Briefs (34, 36, 38)
- Women's Underwear (7, 8, 9)
- Large Cans of Ground Coffee (Caffeinated)
- Heavy Duty Trash Bags – 33 or 40 Gallon (No 30 Gallon Size Please)
- Two-Ply Toilet Paper
- Tissues

Save these important dates and keep an eye out for information in the near future. All of these events will be at Beth Sholom Community Center:

- Tuesday, March 1: NCJW meeting
- Friday, March 18: NCJW Sponsored Oneg
- Thursday, April 14: First Annual Frederick Women's Seder

The Seasons for Peace and Nonviolence events are underway. This national 64-day campaign, inspired by the memorial anniversaries of Mahatma Gandhi and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., honors their vision for an empowered, nonviolent world. Weekly programs are being held throughout the season. NCJW Frederick Section will be participating in the closing ceremony and Peace Seder on Sunday April 3. For more information, please contact Marianne Erlichman.

For more information on NCJW Frederick Section, please check out our web site www.ncjwfrederick.org or contact any NCJW Board member. ☆

ANNCJWV ALENTINE'SE VENT

Join NCJW Frederick Section for a special treat as we welcome Julie Gaver author of
Must Love Shoes

What is it about shoes?

The story began when Julie saw her friend's very special closet which housed her most amazing collection.

But "Must Love Shoes" is not a story about pumps and stilettos. It is about the ti that binds women together in friendship, laughter, and a passionate search for those everyday moments which add meaning and depth to our lives.

In her writing debut, Julie has captured those moments with warm hilarity and poignancy. She shares her lessons and invites the reader to begin her own journey of reflection and fond memories.

Beth Sholom Program Committee by Elissa Gross

Our dedicated committee met Jan. 18 to plan a series of events and activities for our membership and the general community. Among our upcoming program are:

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 6 – 10:30 A.M. – NOON “Mental Health and Spirituality: Our Collective Issue” – a program sponsored by The Way Station in conjunction with National Jewish Disabilities Awareness Month – panel of clients, clinicians and our own congregants discuss how personal and collective spiritual-ity support the recovery from mental health illnesses.

SUNDAY, MARCH 27 – 11:00 A.M. – 12:30 P.M. – “Yiddish: On the Road with a Living Language” by Barbara Libarkin – an historical and relevant review of our shared heritage from its roots to present-day influences.

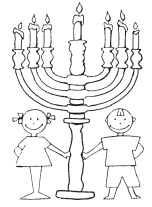

APRIL 10 – 11:00 A.M. – 12:30 P.M. – Joel Snyder presents “Auditory Answers and Interpretation for Everyday Communications” (see detailed article) a special presentation from one of the country’s experts in his field

ALL OF THESE PROGRAMS ARE BEING OFFERED SUNDAYS AS PART OF AN ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM SERIES FREE OF CHARGE INCLUDING BRUNCH TREATS. DONATIONS GRATEFULLY ACCEPTED!

Two other programs in the works: Jewish culinary history and a special Volunteer Recruitment/Management Training Workshop for ALL board, committee and auxiliary members – TBA! ✧

Beth Sholom Early Childhood Center

by Margie Barber, Director and teacher of 4-year-olds

Three times a year, the Beth Sholom Early Childhood Center puts out a Family Newsletter. In the most recent edition, parents shared their children’s favorite books. Here’s what some had to say:

Jordyn’s favorite book is “The Little Mermaid” because “I love mermaids and wish I could breathe and talk under water.”

Noah’s loves “The Little Engine That Could” because he loves trains, and mom loves the moral of the story: I think I can, I think I can....

Max’s favorite book to “read” is his baby book. Mom tells him about the day he was born!

Isis loves the book “Hugaboo, I Love You” because it is interactive (lift the flap) and she has it memorized so she can read it to us.

Isaac’s favorite book is Jack’s House because Max the dog uses all of Isaac’s favorite construction equipment to build a house for his owner, AND it has a surprise ending that he just loves!

Juliana’s favorite book is “What Makes a Rainbow” because “I love it!”

Chases’s favorite book is “Peter Pan,” because it’s NEW! ✧

National Council of Jewish Women
Frederick Section

The holidays are over, we are enjoying our gifts, and our guests returned home safely. We have so much to be thankful for. However, some of our fellow Fredericktonians struggle each day to find enough to eat, to keep warm and to have a bed to sleep in. Fortunately, the Cold Weather Shelter offers some help. In addition to shelter, they try to provide for other needs. During the months of January and February, NCJW Frederick Section will be collecting the following items to help them:

- * Men's Winter Gloves (L, XL)
- * White Crew Socks (L Men and Women)
- * Hats (No Scarves Please)
- * Men's T-Shirts (L, XL, XXL)
- * Men's Briefs (34, 36, 38)
- * Women's Underwear (7, 8, 9)
- * Large Cans of Ground Coffee (Caffeinated)
- * Two-Ply Toilet Paper
- * Tissues
- * Heavy Duty Trash Bags - 33 or 40 Gallon (No 30 Gallon Size Please)

Please note that due to an abundant supply, the Cold Weather Shelter is NOT accepting hot chocolate, travel size soaps/shampoos/conditioners, shaving cream, hand lotions, shower caps, or shoe kits. In addition, they do NOT accept used clothing, coats, colored towels, or blankets. For more information on the Cold Weather Shelter, check out www.thereligiouscoalition.org.

*Please place your donations for the Cold Weather Shelter in the collection box at the Beth Sholom Community Center

Sponsored by Beth Sholom Congregation, Beth Sholom Sisterhood, Congregation Kol Ami, Esther Krinitz Hadassah and NCJW Frederick Section

by Carol Blum, President
301-662-5021

I am so pleased to let you know that Beth Sholom Sisterhood will be continuing, thanks to Andrea Eyler and Sue Peltz. They just said YES. These wonderful people have agreed to be co-presidents of our organization from July 2011 through June 2013, and Chris Eissenstat will be our new vice president.

Personally, I can't thank them enough. I know each and every one of you will support them 110% as you have me, and when they call you will just say YES. Judy Nelson and her nominating committee are busy calling to fill the other offices. Please help!!! Our installation service and dinner will be Friday, June 10, 2011 at 6:30 p.m. Mark it on your calendar NOW.

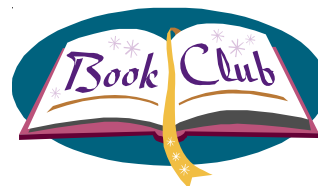

We are happy to tell you that the purse party was a success, and we made close to $600 towards new carpet in the lobby.

Now we move on, after that great accomplishment to:

Save the Date - Saturday, March 12, 7:30 p.m. at Beth Sholom Community Center for "A Taste of the Orient" dinner. Andrea Eyler, fundraising chairwoman, is busy working out all the details. Stacey Springer is busy working on the menu, and guess what?? We need help – setup, servers, cleanup. Please call me and volunteer. More details to follow.

Our next Board meeting is Monday, Feb. 28, 10 a.m. at the Community Center. Everyone is welcome. Until then, stay well and just say yes when you're called.

Thanks,
Carol

The Beth Sholom Book Club meets every other month on the fourth Sunday, usually at 11:30 am, at Beth Sholom Congregation on 1011 N. Market St. in Frederick, MD. We plan a March 27, 2011 gathering to discuss The Book Thief, by Markus Zusak.

This award winning author of I Am The Messenger "has crafted an unforgettable novel about the ability of books to feed the soul." This "groundbreaking new novel is the story of Liesel Meminger, a young foster girl living outside of Munich in Nazi Germany. Liesel scratches out a meager existence for herself by stealing when she discovers something she can't resist — books. Soon she is stealing books from Nazi book-burnings, the mayor's wife's library, wherever they are to be found. ... With the help of her accordion-playing father, Liesel learns to read and shares her stolen books with her neighbors during bombing raids, as well as with the Jewish man hidden in her basement." Although the book is sometimes mentioned as a "young adults" book, all the many recommendations to me that we take up The Book Thief have come from adults of all ages. A fascinating interview with Zusak, from New Zealand but who was inspired to write the book after hearing his mother's accounts of life in Nazi Germany, can be seen at the Amazon.com web site (book section) where the novel is available new and used and in Kindle format. It's widely available elsewhere as well.

We welcome all book lovers, members or non-members, to come to discuss this book and help make plans for future gatherings. For more information, contact Carolyn Snyder at csnyder239@comcast.net, or call 301-631-3991. ☆ is in its 28th year, offering classes at Glade UCC in Walkersville from February 14 through March 22: six 2-hour sessions on Monday and Tuesday afternoons (1-3 pm) and evenings (7-9 pm). We provide a Learning for Life experience, for both laity and clergy.

Nine courses are being offered: Psalms, Esther and Genesis • Why Read Ecclesiastes? • Rediscovering the Historical Jesus-Again! • The Oratorio: Sacred Story Goes to the Theater • Understanding Islam: Myth and Reality • Prophets-Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Hosea and Amos • How The Bible Came to Be • Yoga: A Spiritual Practice • Quakerism – Mystics, Politics and Antics.
