First Annual Casino Night Saturday, Feb. 19, 2011

Casino night was a huge success, in every sense of the word. It was a profitable fundraiser and it provided a much-anticipated GREAT TIME for all in attendance! Many factors went into making it a wonderful evening--a great DJ, a wine and martini bar, delicious food, atmospheric lighting, a variety of gambling stations staffed by friendly, patient people. Most of all, credit and a huge "thank you" goes to Ezra and Marla Elkon, who did most of the "footwork" for the event, in addition to the catering.

If you weren't able to be there this year, you'll have another chance next year!

Lots of dancing...

Attention Parents and Grandparents:

We are in the beginning stages of considering a once-a-week "My Grown-up and Me" class for 18- to 24-month old children. Classes would be 60-75 minutes long, with three sessions per year, for approximately 10 weeks each. Activities would include free play, art project, circle time (songs and stories) and large muscle play.

Fees have yet to be determined, but we promise you they will be reasonable! If you, or anyone you know, might be interested in enrolling in such a program, please let us know by calling the office at 301-663-3437.

NCJW

National Council of Jewish Women
Frederick Section

A FAITH IN THE FUTURE A BELIEF IN ACTION

by Marcy Taylor, President

Happy Birthday, NCJW Frederick Section! This month we turn 90! Please join us at Friday evening services on March 18. NCJW will be sponsoring the Oneg and sharing a bit of our 90-year history.

We will kick off the month with our general meeting on March 1 (Beth Sholom Community Center, 7 p.m.) Spring is around the corner and this is when NCJW provides monetary donations to needy organizations in our community. During our March meeting, we will be collecting recommendations for which organizations to support. We will also decide on an organization for which to collect needed items starting in late March. Watch for upcoming announcements on our spring collection.

In June, we will be installing two officers for a two-year term: Treasurer and Vice President, Administrative Affairs. If you are interested in holding one of these coveted offices, please contact Marcy Taylor.

Calling all girls (age 13 and older) and women! Please join us for our first annual Frederick Women's Seder. The Women's Seder, sponsored by Beth Sholom Congregation, Beth Sholom Sisterhood, Congregation Kol Ami, Hadassah and NCJW promises to be an inspirational event. Seating is limited so rsvp today. Please contact Diane Levant for more information.

Save these dates and keep an eye out for information in the near future:

- Sunday April 3: Seasons for Peace and Nonviolence Closing Ceremony. For more information, please contact Marianne Erlichman.
- Sunday, April 10: Guest speaker Joel Snyder (brother of Carolyn) will speak about Audio Description, The Visual Made Verbal. Low vision does not mean you need to miss out. If you or someone you know cannot enjoy visual arts or TV, you should attend this program.
- Thursday, April 14: First Annual Frederick Women's Seder

For more information on NCJW Frederick Section, please check out our web site www.ncjwfrederick.org or contact any NCJW Board Member. ☆

Teen*Volunteer*Corps by Kevin Dwyer, President

The Beth Sholom teens were busy in December and January. Just recently, 23 of Beth Sholom's teens took the trip of a lifetime, traveling to Israel with Shoresh. We traveled all over the country and were given a new-found understanding of where we come from. We had an opportunity to go ATVing along the Syrian border, hike up Masada, visit the Kotel, and most importantly, get in touch with our religion. Several families sent more than one teen, but due to the NYC blizzard and all our adventures, we feel like one BIG family now. We are grateful to Rabbi Dave and all our Shoresh leaders for making the trip possible.

In January we had fitness trainer Shannon Wallace from 368 Athletics come and speak about the importance of physical fitness. Following Shannon's lecture, Rabbi Kosman discussed the Jewish views on health and fitness. In the upcoming months, Teen Corps plans to help with the Women's Seder and we have several other volunteer programs in the works. If you would like to join us or have ideas for a project, e-mail susandwy@gmail.com.

Don't forget that it's not too late to join USY through our friends at Shaare Torah. See Pauline Horn for an application so you can participate in upcoming USY activities and conventions. ☆

Beth Sholom Program Committee

by Elissa Gross, Chair

EVERYONE is welcome to join the Beth Sholom Program Committee! If you're interested, our next meeting is Wednesday, March 16, 5:45 p.m. at Beth Sholom - COME PRESENT YOUR OWN IDEAS FOR FUTURE PROGRAMMING!

Thanks to all who came out to our recent meeting on February 9, held the same evening as two others - it's "marathon meeting" time at Beth Sholom! We are in the midst of investigating several programming items, including:

- A possible field trip to the Jewish Museum in Philadelphia, along with possible stopover at The University of Pennsylvania's Judaic Collection, where congregant Allan Lowe's nephew is the curator. Otherwise, he may be available to give a talk here in Frederick at some future time.
- Special trip to a local dairy farm operated through robotics (tasting included?) which is within easy driving distance near Gettysburg - a wonderful idea for families!

PLEASE don't forget our next two scheduled programs:

Sunday, March 27 - 11 a.m.
"The History and Relevance of the Yiddish Language" by Barbara Libarkin

April 10 - 11 a.m. Joel Snyder's presentation on "Assisted Language Devices in Museum and Media Venues." Joel is congregant Carolyn Snyder's brother and is a leading expert in his field.

Allan Lowe and I had the wonderful opportunity to represent our Frederick Jewish community at the recent Advocacy Day in Annapolis on February 8, sponsored by the Baltimore Jewish Community and The ASSOCIATED. Next year, we hope to have MANY more folks join us as we meet with local legislators to present issues and requests to benefit our Maryland communities. Lieutenant Governor Anthony Brown and Comptroller Peter Franchot were among the state leaders who were present to thank us all for being interested and involved.

The Beth Sholom Book Club meet on March 27, 2011 at 1 p.m. to discuss The Book Thief, by Markus Zusak.

This award winning author of I Am The Messenger “has crafted an unforgettable novel about the ability of books to feed the soul.” This “groundbreaking new novel is the story of Liesel Meminger, a young foster girl living outside of Munich in Nazi Germany. Liesel scratches out a meager existence for herself by stealing when she discovers something she can’t resist — books. Soon she is stealing books from Nazi book-burnings, the mayor’s wife’s library, wherever they are to be found. ... With the help of her accordion-playing father, Liesel learns to read and shares her stolen books with her neighbors during bombing raids, as well as with the Jewish man hidden in her basement.” Although the book is sometimes mentioned as a “young adults” book, all the many recommendations to me that we take up The Book Thief have come from adults of all ages. A fascinating interview with Zusak, from New Zealand but who was inspired to write the book after hearing his mother’s accounts of life in Nazi Germany, can be seen at the Amazon.com web site (book section) where the novel is available new and used and in Kindle format. It’s widely available elsewhere as well.

We welcome all book lovers, members or non-members, to come to discuss this book and help make plans for future gatherings. For more information, contact Carolyn Snyder at csnyder239@comcast.net, or call 301-631-3991. ☆

Affirm the Rights of Workers & Families in Our Region at Jews United for Justice’s Annual Labor Seder

Each year, the Labor Seder highlights a current workers’ rights struggle and brings together the Jewish, labor, and nonprofit communities in a shared commitment to social and economic justice. This year’s seder will focus on widespread unemployment in our region and on the struggles of working families and low-income residents to find and keep good jobs. The seder will feature singing, storytelling, discussion, reflection, and action, as well as local workers, activists, rabbis, and an original haggadah. All are welcome! Light refreshments (vegetarian and kosher-certified) will be served. Children’s program provided.

- Sunday, April 10, 5:30-8 p.m.
- Adas Israel Congregation, 2850 Quebec St, NW, Washington, DC 20008
- Early registration (before April 3): $18 general admission; $10 for children, students, and people of limited income; $36 for families.
- Late registration (after April 3): $20 general admission. If cost is an issue please contact JUFJ; no one will be turned away.

Pre-register online at www.jufj.org. Pre-registration is strongly preferred.

A limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

In Clarksburg, there are 152 acres of rolling hills and woodland that will be here for eternity.

Spring, summer, winter, fall—experience the beauty at the Garden of Remembrance. Mature woodland, beautifully sculpted paths and an expansive sweep of sky form the backdrop for the area's only community-based, non-profit Jewish cemetery.

We are the caretakers of eternity, carefully maintaining the grounds to ensure that your history lives on for generations to come, while providing a place for the living to find peace and solace.

Twenty one area congregations have reserved sections in the Garden, and individual and family sites are also available.

To discuss your needs, call our Help Line today at 301.428.3000, or visit www.gardenofremembrance.org.
